- 1.—Every letter should be written clearly, and with a WIDE margin on good paper of FOOLSCAP SIZE.—The margin should be on the left hand of the first and third pages, and on the right hand of the second and fourth pages, in each sheet.
- 2.—Applications for different objects, or relating to different Schools, are to be made in separate letters; and all official letters are to be addressed to "The Secretary."

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the Committee of Council has had under consideration the Report of Her Majesty's Inspector upon this School, and that payment of the grant allowed, according to the following Schedule (over), will be made to you in the course of a few days.

You are requested, unless there are special circumstances to explain, not to write any letter in reply to this present communication between the receipt of it and the arrival of the payment.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your obedient Servant,

Hastings Russell Esq. M.P.

SUMMARY* OF THE INSPECTOR'S REPORT ON THE SCHOOL, AND REMARKS (IF ANY) TO BE MADE.

* Revised Code, Articles:—
61. The inspector will not write any report on the good or bad state of the school in the log-book at the time of his visit, but will enter therein with his own hand the full name and standing (certificated teacher of the class, or pupil-teacher of the year, or assistant-teacher) of each member of the school establishment. The inspector will not enter the names of pupil-teachers respecting whose admission the Committee of Council has not yet pronounced a decision.
62. The summary of the inspector's report [and the remarks accompanying it], when communicated by the Committee of Council to the managers, must be copied into the log-book by the secretary of the latter, who must also enter the names and description of all teachers to be added to, or withdrawn from, those entered by the inspector, according to the decision of the Committee of Council upon the inspector's report. The secretary of the managers must sign this entry. [This form should be preserved in the Portfolio, Article 65.]
63. The inspector, before making his entry of the school establishment in the following year, will refer to his own entry made in the preceding year, and also to the entry which is required to be made by the secretary of the school pursuant to Article 62, and he will require to see entries in the log-book accounting for any subsequent change of the school establishment.

" This is an excellent School - The general Tone and Discipline are remarkably good - The Instruction throughout is accurate, and the Boys show considerable intelligence, and have had great pains taken with them in the higher subjects, such as Geography, History, and Grammar - The only weakness observable is, as last year, in the Spelling."

In determining what Evening Scholars are eligible for grants under Article 4, My Lords have been compelled to adopt one uniform rule which excludes all scholars who appear from the Examination Schedule to have been over 21 years of age at the date to which that Schedule refers. My Lords cannot, therefore, make

NOTE.—The subject (if any) specified after each Candidate's or Pupil Teacher's name denotes that the result of the examination therein has been unsatisfactory and that improvement will be looked for on the next occasion. The marks ° or * denote respectively—(°) that no exercise has been performed, and (*) that there has been a failure, in the subjects against which they severally stand. The word "failure," after the Name of a Candidate for admission, denotes that the Candidate failed in the examination.
